

Free time

Hi, I'm Ray Cherche. I am a detective and as a detective I help people finding what they are looking for. I want to tell you a little bit about my life. I hope you enjoy it 😊.

Let's start with my free time 😊: On Mondays I like watching TV with my husband. We love detective series like "Sherlock". Every Tuesday we go to a karaoke bar and sing our favourite songs. On Wednesdays I go swimming in our local swimming pool. On Thursdays I play basketball and my husband plays tennis. On Fridays we like riding our bikes and meeting friends at a restaurant. On the weekends we don't do much because we do so many things between Monday and Friday.

I don't like dancing. Also, I don't like playing football, but I would like to learn playing an instrument because I like to sing so much. Maybe I will try to learn how to play the guitar. My husband loves guitar music. So, on his next birthday I could play his favourite song.

As a detective, I also have to work a lot. Let me describe a typical day at work: First, I get up at around seven o'clock. I take a shower, brush my teeth, comb my hair and have breakfast at our local bakery. After that I go my office. It is close to the bakery. Then I start reading the newspaper to learn what is going on around the world. Next I begin to work as a detective. I have to do a lot of research, go to places and ask people questions, write reports. This is what I do a lot. At noon I have lunch with my husband who works nearby. In the afternoon I finish work at around five o'clock and meet with my husband to go home together.

We also have a child. Her name is Denise. She gets her own pocket money so she can learn how to manage money. But she also has to do her chores at home, like doing the dishes and taking out the trash.

Sometimes we go on trips with our daughter, but we have to agree on a place. It very often goes like this:

Denise: I'd like to go to the shopping mall. What are your plans?

Ray: I'm not sure about it. Why don't we go to the countryside? What do you think?

John: Sounds great! I love that idea. We could have a picnic.

Denise: Oh no! Umm ... Ok. Let us mix our ideas. First, we go to the shopping mall and then we go on a bike tour to the countryside and have a picnic.

Ray: That's a great idea. Let's do it!

Denise: Ok. Let's meet at home at two o'clock.
