

SOLUTIONS

Home, sweet home

Before you read the text

1. Talk to your neighbour: Do you read the school newspaper? Why (not)? What (else) do you read? Is there a magazine, website that you read? Why (not)?

1 minute

Read the text on page 80

New Vocabulary

English	Explanation/ Synonym/ ...	Picture/ German Translation
(to) get around	to move from place to place
nosey	always wanting to know what other people are doing downtown	city centre
community	different people that live together in an area
(to) hunt	to chase and kill wild animals
wheels	here: car
yard	garden
dull	boring
volunteering	working without getting money

2. All students memorize at least the bold printed words.
ER-level-students memorize the first and the second column.
GR- and FBL-level-students memorize the first and the third column.

3 minutes

SOLUTIONS

While you are reading (global understanding)

5. Scan the text and fill in the table. Then complete it for yourself.

5 minutes

		me
name	Leah Martin
age	15
family	mother, father, brother
hometown	Guntersville
state	Alabama
friends	Raven, Earl
hobbies	fishing, hunting, summer fires, barbecues, watching stars
jobs	works at the local supermarket, helps kids with their homework

After you have read the text

6. Write about what Leah and you have in common and also where your lives differ. Use as many of the new vocabulary as you can.

FBL-Level	GR-Level	ER-Level
Schreibe drei Sätze. Unterstreiche die neuen Vokabeln.	Write 3 to 4 sentences. Underline the new vocabulary.	Write at least four sentences and give reasons. Underline the new vocabulary.

You can find help on page 133, n.º 2b.

Don't cross the line. This part is mine.

SOLUTIONS

NORTHERN FLICKER

ALABAMA STATE BIRD

http://www.supercoloring.com/sites/default/files/styles/coloring_full/public/cif/2015/08/alabama-state-bird-coloring-page.jpg on December 5, 2020 at 14:37 o'clock.