

Tick (✓) the right expression!

an episode, a tv show, or a movie

- programme documentary crime series

tells the facts about actual people and events

- change the channel documentary shopping mall

a movie is shown on TV

- (to) be on (to) be out (to) be in the paper where you can find TV shows or movies

- (to) be on the news (to) be unbelievable (to) read the TV list-ings

illegal act of a person

- crime comedy series

a place with many shops where you can buy clothes

- (to) be on (to) be unbelievable shopping mall

sth. is impossible to believe

- (to) be unbelievable (to) be on (to) be disappointed about a person watching TV

- reporter viewer criminal

you watch RTL, then SAT 1, and finally CNN

- (to) change the chan- nel (to) be on the new nel (to) be on

(to) help people and work without getting money

- (to) do volunteer work (to) be a viewer (to) be disappointed about you are sad about what happened

- shopping mall viewer (to) be disappointed about

Compare your results with the solution sheet.