

Name: _____

Class: _____

Date: _____.____.20____

Dialogue

1. Write a dialogue between Madison and her mother.

Schreibe einen Dialog zwischen Madison und ihrer Mutter.

remote control ♦ satellite dish ♦ rights ♦ was really impressed by ♦ turn down the volume ♦ did a little research on ♦ African American ♦ was judged by ♦ death ♦ making speeches on ♦ skin

Mother: Hi darling! I'm home! - Oh can you please _____ of the TV? I fear our _____ falls off the roof.

Madison: Sorry mom, but I cannot find the _____!

Mother: I beg your pardon? - There it is! - Now I can hear you better.

Madison: So, how was your day at work?

Mother: Well, interesting.

Madison: What does that mean?

Mother: You know, first I interviewed an _____. He told me about the _____ of his brother and he wanted me to tell about it on the news.

Madison: Oh, that sounds really interesting.

Mother: Yes. So I _____ the death of African Americans in America. I found out a lot about Martin Luther King, how he _____ other people only because of his _____ colour. I _____ how he went on. He didn't give up. He kept _____ human _____ and equality (dt. Gleichheit).

Madison: Wow. That sounds like a lot of work. I had a lot to do at school, too. So why don't we ask Dad to prepare dinner?

Mother: Good idea!

2. Rehearse a performance of the dialogue.

Übe eine Vorführung des Dialogs ein.